

Know Someone Who Needs a Gown for the Ball?

If you're dreaming of the prom, but can't find a dress you can afford
The Cinderella Project of New Hampshire can help.

Cinderella has hundreds of beautiful, FREE dresses for young women who can't otherwise afford one.

Cinderella is coming to North Stratford, NH in February 2010!

Fri. 2/26, 2-6 PM

Sat. 2/27, 9:30 AM-Noon

(Storm date only: Sunday 2/28 9:30 AM-Noon)

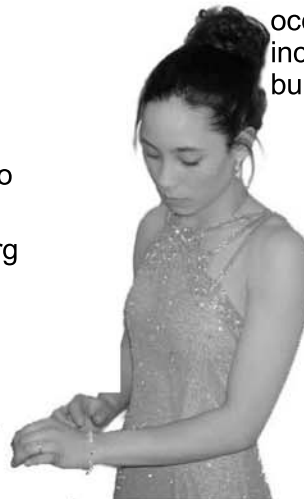

For more information contact Board of Director, Sarah Jackson (603) 636-2634 or call the Cinderella Project of New Hampshire (603) 210-1415.

The Cinderella Project of New Hampshire is a statewide non-profit organization dedicated to building self esteem and confidence in young women. The Cinderella Project distributes new and gently-worn formal dresses and accessories, free of charge, to young women so that they can attend formal occasions in style, without incurring serious financial burden.

- Hundreds of new and revitalized gowns and dresses, in all sizes and current styles
- Over 4000 teens have already participated
- Young women personally select the dress of their dreams
- Referral to the Cinderella Project may be made by teachers, counselors, or other school officials, clergy, social service agencies, parents or guardians.
- All referrals are confidential and may be made by phone or fax to CPNH at 603-210-1415.
- More information is available at www.thecinderellaprojectofnh.org
- Contact us now! Dresses and accessories are waiting to make dreams come true!
- Vermont students are welcome with a referral

The Cinderella Project
of New Hampshire
(603) 210-1415 (voice or fax)
www.thecinderellaprojectofnh.org

LOCATION:

Stratford Public School
19 School Street in North Stratford, NH 03590
Friday February 26, 2-6 PM
Saturday, February 27, 9:30 AM -Noon
603-922-3387