

Know Someone Who Needs a Special Occasion Dress?

The Cinderella Project of New Hampshire has 100s of beautiful, FREE dresses for young women who can't otherwise afford one.

*Joanne,
Thank you for helping me find the perfect dress!! I'll never forget my senior prom. You've influenced me to help others!*

The Cinderella Project of New Hampshire is a statewide non-profit organization dedicated to promoting confidence and self-esteem in financially-challenged young women by allowing them the opportunity and the means to attend social events within their communities and schools. CPNH distributes new and "gently worn" formal dresses and accessories, without charge, to young ladies in N.H. so that they may attend social functions in style, without worry or financial burden.

- ◆ Financially distressed New Hampshire young women are eligible
- ◆ Over 4000 young women have already benefited
- ◆ Young women personally select the dress of their dreams
- ◆ Verification of Public Assistance eligibility or a referral from a guardian, school official, counselor or clergy person is required.
- ◆ Referrals can be made by phone or fax to 603-210-1415. All referrals are confidential.
- ◆ More information is available at www.thecinderellaprojectofnh.org
- ◆ Contact us now! Dresses and accessories are waiting to make dreams come true!
